THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Isaiah 57:15; Psalm 92:1-4

The Minister: "For thus says the One who is high and lifted up, who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: 'I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with him who is of a contrite and lowly spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly, and to revive the heart of the contrite.'"

The Congregation: "It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to Your name, O Most High;

The Minister: To declare Your steadfast love in the morning, and Your faithfulness by night, to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre.

The Minister and Congregation: For You, O Lord, have made me glad by Your work; at the works of Your hands I sing for joy."

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Father in Heaven, we come before You as a family of believers willfully acknowledging our sins before You. This time in our worship is never easy, but we know it is right and good for our souls to confess sins openly before You and hear Your healing words of pardon. So, Father we confess that our hearts are distracted this morning and not entirely focused on You and Your glory. We confess that our hearts have wandered from You this week and found satisfaction in the temporal things of this world. We confess that our pride has again led us to the realm of self-reliance and self-dependence. We confess our uncompassionate hearts have caused us to not love our neighbor as ourselves. For all these sins and many more, we ask for Your forgiveness. Heal us, Lord Jesus, by Your grace, and transform us to be a people humble in heart and contrite in spirit. Amen.

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

"Come now, let us reason together, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool." — Isaiah 1:18

THE HYMN OF PRAISE

"My Heart Is Filled with Thankfulness"

Please see the next panel of the bulletin for the words and music.

THE STATEMENT OF FAITH

"For He grew up before Him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him, and no beauty that we should desire Him. He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces He was despised, and we esteemed Him not. Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But He was pierced for our transgressions; He was crushed for our iniquities; upon Him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with His wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned —every one— to his own way; and the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity of us all." — Isaiah 53:2-6

This Wednesday evening, Dr. Ligon Duncan will teach, “The PCA, Race, Remembrance, Repentance, Reconciliation, and Rejoicing: A Personal Journey.” Visit www.indepres.org for more information about our other guest speakers and their topics.
